

"A Love for a Lifetime"

John 4:4-26

1 John 4:21b Whoever loves God must also love his brother.

John 4:4 Now he had to go through Samaria.

John 13:35 By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.

John 4:9 The Samaritan woman said to him, "you are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?"

1. It will add Life to your Relationships

John 4:17,18 "I have no husband," she replied. Jesus said to her "You are right in saying that you have no husband. The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband.

Matthew 5:23,24 Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother, then come and offer your gift.

2. It will add Life to your Worship

John 4:22a You Samaritans worship what you do not know...

Romans 12:1 Therefore, I urge you brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God – this is your reasonable act of worship.

Matthew 15:7 You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you: These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. They worship me in vain.

3. It will add Life to your Testimony

John 4:29a Come see a man who told me everything I ever did...

John 4:39a Many Samaritans in that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony.

Matthew 16:25 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will find it.
